DIRECTOR

Robert W. Magner

Dear Graduate:

Congratulations to each of you on this special occasion. You are the 20th class to graduate from the Southeastern Technical Institute, and like the more than 2,500 alumni before you, the School Committee, Administration and Staff are proud to graduate you from this institute. We are confident that you have been prepared for a successful and rewarding career in your chosen field. The type of training that you have received here has been a foundation that you can build a future on. The learning process that took place here has not ended. As each of you enter your newly found career, you will discover the need for more challenging and sophisticated knowledge. Let the challenge of learning continue with you for years to come. I wish each of you a bright and lucrative future. Best of luck, and again, congratulations to each of you.

Sincerely,
Robert W. Magner
